SATURDAY, -- JULY 25, 1856.

Jeffersontown To-Day. Remember the barbeens at Jeffersontown to day. All parties are invited-Democrats, Americans, and the rest of mankind.

The Issue.

The South, and the Democracy of the North repealed the Missouri compromise. It was hailed, at the time, as an act of justice to the South, with a degree of unanimity seldom seen on any question.

There is one party North who pronounce the act an ontrage on the part of the South; one of the aggressious of the slave power; and, as a remedy, it maintains that Kansas must, at all bazards, be made a free State.

There is another faction, North and South, that condemns the act; and therein condemns the act of the whole South, and the Democratic party of the North. This faction concedes all that its more intensified brethren charge; but it has not said, as a party, what remedy must be applied to the WI Eg.

There is a third party, North and South, maintaining that the South and her friends did no wrong in repealing the Missouri compromise; that it was a wise and just measure, and should be maintained.

Which side will Kentneky take? Will she support the men North who support her own act, who defend her against the charge of bad faith and wrong doing; or will she minister to the aid and comfor: of the enemy, by supporting a party that charges upon her the worst of crimes? Will she meanly get on her knees to the Abelitionists, and confess her g .ilt, when she has done no wrong, and when her friends North are gallantly defend ing ber fr m the charges her enemies are making Will Kentucky consent to occupy so degraded a Dosition ?

Let it be borne in mind, that there is no party North or S with, that stands up manfully and de feuds the South for repealing the Missouri compromise, who declares that she did, in that act, actly and wisely, except the Democratic party. The Republicans are raving and railing at the South, and the Fillmore men are standing by halt frightened out of their boots, trying to appearse this Abelition party, confessing that the South it led a great sin, and they are sorry : but begging for peace, and in the free States joinis, with the Abelitionists to fill all federal offices with men of the anti-slavery stripe, who will choos such measures as they may deem proper.

Let i, be borne in mind, that whilst there are Fillmore for President, there is no such thing as a compromise, at the hezard of stopping the government in its regular operations. It is a measure most in its regular operations. It is a measure most their own, and no Congressmen.

State officers of their own, and no Congressmen.

State officers of their own, and no Congressmen. the Ab litimists. They have electoral tickets in shall see what we shall see, some of the States, for the offices of President and Vice President; but as to the legislation of the country, they unite all their votes to give it to the Republican parly. What plodges can they make to the Su'h? What security can they effer, when they are now co-operating with, instead of relialing, the Abolitionists of the free States? What purpose will Fillmore enswer the South, is he were as conservative as his friends here pra tend; when, by their votes, Congress, including the lower House and Sensis, is Abolition, and all the States under the same control? Is it not downright leannity in the South to support any but the Democratic party at such a crisis as this ?

Au Abolitionis: by the name of Veatch comp sed of Republicans and Americans, in opposition to Lockbart, the Democratic candidate. The united brethren don't, however, get alone without trouble. The district probably contains rather more than its proportion of Fillmore men in the State; but they don't pretend to make a n emination of their own; although the resolutions of the meeting were as black as any Black Republican could desire. We see, bowever, that Add. Sanders, of the Evansville Journal, is much excited about the conduct of some of the brothren They have begun to make trouble in the camp and threaten to vote for Lockbart, on account of the elavery question. Add. doesn't think that ench small matters as political opinious or objects should be allowed to interfere with the holy purpose of ruling. He says:

The National American party is, as a party, opposed in prince pleto the further agitation of the slavery question. It is also by its platferm, opposed to the Kaosas-Nebraska in quity. Now if even National Americans are to be ostracilly discussed, in the midst of the while wind of excitament on the slavery question, they are induced to take a position in which slavery is interested, we should soon read each other out of the party till scarcely a baser's sloren might be lett. And if a mat till scarcely a baser's sloren might be lett. And if a mat till scarcely a baser's sloren might be lett. rendering to the enemy, and to an enemy who

If the faithful should leave on the ground of difforence in political opinions, there would not be a twenty members left the Knew-Nothing order. baker's dezen on hand. It is not worth while to be exercised about the matter; the Democracy will attend to that district, as heretofore. The brethren can agree to support the Abolitionist, Veatch, whom they have nominated, as well as anybody clee. There is not enough of them to do any barm. Men, however, who consider political objects of some mement, will vote for Lockhart; if they have any opinions that are national.

Gregg, the editor of the New Albany Tribuue, said, in his speech at that place some evenings since, that he was as good an auti-Nebrasks and anti-slavery man as any Black Republican. He said the Old-Line party in Indiana were more pro-slavery than the American party of Kentucky. He judges of the American party in this State by the editor of the Journal, who is just as good an anti-Nebraska and anti-ziavery men as Gregg, his Fillmore brother. Gregg was anxious for a union with the Fremont party, but his audience wouldn't listeu; shouted that he was making an Abolition speech, sud trying to sell is boarded out to the line of the latter. It is very is boarded out to the line of the latter. It is very is boarded out to the line of the latter. It is very them out to the Abelitionists. We don't know Liners of Indiana are better pro-slavery men than the American party of Kentucky. If by probut Gregg was half right in saying that the Old-

Journal evidently believe that his statements Colouis memories and the spirit of the past. The won't do to bet on. The profer to bet that Buch-late Elliott Cressou left teu thousand dollars toanau will get twice as many electoral votes as Fillmore; and that Fremout will get twice as meny as Fillmore—$250 on each proposition, to be taken together or separately—uone of the brethren have yet had the courage to take; yet the editor of the Journal assures them that the race is between Fremout and Fillmore.

Some days ago, the lower House, at Washngton, passed a resolution restoring the Missourl mpromise, and Mesers. Duun and Haven suggested withhelding supplies, unless the Senate concurred. This is about the last resort before revolution. The Senate would resist and resent such an attempt to correctheir votes; and then upon at discretiou. There Is one important conopinions and wishes. Mr. Dunu is the head and quested that the rope be lengthened, saying:

"I have seen such work before, and unless from his position and his talents. There is no degree of baseness to which the opposition to the Democratic party will not resort. The Louisville Journal published a vile forgerv vesterday m rning, which is signed Perrin M. Brown, jr., and jurports to be a circular, written from Washi gion city to postmasters, asking contributions; and to do so by authority. The frandulent character is too glaring on the face of the document to decelve any sensible man; but still it is published here as genuine, after it has been denounced, by authority, in Washington, as a base that they would not believe said Ray on oath. American Triumph in the Senate. The Senate, in the late bill respecting Kansas, have confined the right of voting to citizens of the United States; and this is called an American triumph. ments concerning the conduct of the Rev. Thomas Greer, and those who were his accomplices in the lawless execution of Ray: MOUNT CARNEL, July S. 1856.

Mr. — Dear Sir: This morning a messenger came riding by very rapidly, saying he was giving uotice to the neighborhood, "that Jim Ray was going to be hung at the school-house reme teu miles from this, and in Morgau county." I could gather no further particulars from him; but New Hampshire, offered certain resolutions on the subject of slavery, declaratory of the power of A. M., and found a crowd of farmers and their A. M., and found a crowd of farmers and their sons, amounting in all to about one hundred. On worming my way up to one of the windows, I saw what was said to be two Baptist preachers, singing and praying, in company with a tell black-eyed, black-haired, and athietic looking man, who seemed—from the ropes about his arms—to be a prisoner, and tho object of their prayers. On eaking who he was, I was answered: "Why it's Jim Ray, the man that's to be hung." In a few minutes, I noticed the crowd leaving the windows and gathering around a mag, who was standing on and gathering around a man, who was standing on an elevated point, evidently with the intention of addressing those around him. I immediately made for the spot, and on drawing near recognised in him one Thomas Greer, whom I had heard preach a Baptist sermou a few Suudays previous, u a church not six miles off. I, of course, sup-cosed that he was going to speak for the purpose allaying the excitement, but judge of my surprise when he commenced his remarks as follows "Gentlemen and fellow-snfferers! All those who have been immediate sufferers by the late tragedy, will step out and form a closing around me. These of you that do not, I will mark their names with a deep black cross mark. By-standers will please give way, as I do not ask thom to take a part." With this, the crowd gave back, and fifteen mid-dle agod farmers obeyed his command. He then put the following vote to them: "Men, are we to turn this fellew loose among us f so, you will hold up your hands."

Not a hand bndged, and he continued: "Then, gentlemen, if we are to harg him, you ill make it known by answering I."
I! I! I! sounded through the little ring. Ho a few moments, he again ascended his height, and anuonneed to the crowd, which theu numbered some 250, that the prisoner would be hung in one hour from that time. The crowd then made a rish to see the effect the sentence would have upon him (Ray), but it did not move him in the lesst, pel (a whole honr) in preparing his soul for etornity. During the sixty minutes, I think helcoked at the clock but twice. When he was teld his time was up, be arose, walked firmly to the door and mounted his horse. The aloresaid fifteen formed themselves around him, and moved slowly towards the gallows, or rather to a limb on an old cak, which was some seven or eight hundred pards distant. On arriving, he dismounted, stopped on a bench under the fatal limb, and asked that his confession, as he called it, should be read. Whe upon Mr. Greer read a piece of writing. But cence, and a kind of autobiography of his life. Atter this was finished, he then asked how long they would give him to speak. The reply was thirty minutes. He, being quite illiterate, his remarks were disconnected and sentences broken. Yet he spoke with firmness, and not the slightest quiver to be detected in his voice. His addre was something thue:

"Gentlemen, and honorable citizens of Morgan conuty, I am about to die an innocent man; but You do not see me with a dark for shead and down cast eye. I am innocent, as God Almighty know leave a family of four girls and a good wife.

Why do we hear no more the shouts of that paper over the union of the old Whig and Democratic parties?

When some old friend of Henry Clay was beaten S. S. No Whig could obtain a vote from a follower of pletely. Our informant says there was not a Whig by that party. Every office must be filled Sam. No, not even one vots could be given to a stand will probably be answered by Mr. Hanson by Sam.

Judge, however high his qualificatious, his virtnes, Major A. M. Hancook, assistant Hindoo and his reputation, could keep his office as a Whig. Elector for the State at large, addressed his "fel. Look at the case of Judge Pirtle. His only crime was that he was a It is the general understanding in this city, Whig. He even said he was for Fillmore, but would not swear away his liberties. He thought they could rely upon his word as an houest man

Mesers. Editors: This bas been a glerious day The following letter, from a respectative security, addressed to a gentleman of this city, giving a history of the execution of James Ray, in Morgan in a most able and satisfactory manner. The great gun of Hindooism has been fired off in our great gun of Hindooism has been fired of in a most able and ratisfactory manner. The great gun of Hindooism has been fired off in our great gun of Hindooism has been fired off in our Hanna Maria Post, residing at 177 Pavonia avenue, Jersey City, testified that she was the contract of Casherina Ann Van Buren Post, now to be made the subject of judicial investigation, before the next Grand July of Morgan county, who will be compelled to take cognizance of the said so much in praise, and who is regarded as one W. Hanson, of whom the Louisville Journal has of the strong supports of the proscriptionists in this State, has just been mot by S. Garfield, Esq., Assistant Democratic Elector for the State at large, and utterly demolished. Mr. Garfield opcued the discussion by a most masterly review of the rise, progress, past services, and present prospects to be in this State at the present time. A wit and duties of the Democratio party. He also dis-I cassed the origin, purposes, and final doom of the Know-Nothing party-showing its origin tu prejudices of race and faith, its purposes to be the acquisition of power and place by any and all means, and its doom utter annihilation within a brief space of time. He also examined the political history of Mr. Fillmore and of Jas. Buehanan. He proved that Mr. Fillmore began political life as an anti-mason, and that he then denounced all secre secieties of all kinds as dangerons to our republi-can institutions. This course he contrasted with Fillmore's present position as a member of a secret political ecciety, designed expressly to role a por-tion of our follow-citizens of their constitutional rights. He presented Mr. Fillmore's record on the slavery question, and proved him a consistent Abolitionist from 1836 to the present time. He then took up the record of Mr. Buehanan proved it consistent and national, and showed him to the people as the great, patriolic, and good man that he is. Herefuted the slanders vemited forth against onr nominee, and placed his character in a proper light. For nearly two hours a pin might ave been heard to drop between the sentences of the speaker, so profound was the attention throughout the very large audience.

He was followed by Mr. Hanson, who occupied his whole time in baseless assertions, standerous of Mr. Buchanen and the Democratic party, and lendators of Mr. Standard and the Democratic party, and audatory of Mr. Fillmore; declared Fillmore's administration superior to that of any other President, and Fillmore to be the greatest and best man of this or any other ege or country. He is exceedingly able at vulgar abuse and round, baseless asertions—he is as vulgar as Pilcher, as dennaciato-y as Davis, and as ignorant as — himself. His effort fell still-born upon the andience, and the crowd dispersed under the conviction that a lame sause was being advocated by a still weaker man Hold up the hands of our speakers, send them not every section of the State, encourage them to uble diligence, and stimulare all lovers of tho Union to patriotic exertion—by these means the d Clinton will do her part of the work when the day of voting comes. Yours, VINDEX.

[Cotraspondence of the Louisville Democrat.] Letter From Mercer County.

HARRONSBURG, KY., July 20, 1856. Mesers. Editors: Eloquence, argument, and ensou, presented in a celm, dignified, respectful nanner, to au enlightened people, are, beyond loubt, the most effective appeals by which prejulice and fanaticism may be put down, and truth brought to bear upon the minds of meu. Such was the course pursued by our gallant Stevenson, last Saturday evening, at the Court-house, to one of the largest, most respectable, and most orderly adiences it has ever been my fortune to see assembled in this place. Not a word of disapprobation has been uttered by the Knew-Nothings; but, on the contrary, they speak of Col. S. and his nasterly effort in the highest terms; pronouncing t the most able and patrictic speech they have neard for a long time. Col. S , I am sorry to say, s laboring under a savere cold, which almost derived us of the banefit and pleasure of hearing this address; and it was with considerable reinc tance that he consented to comply with the call that had been made upon him by the Damoeracy of

It would be impossible for me to depict the earuest, patriotic appeal that this gifted statesman made to all levers of the Union and the Constitu tion. He did not appeal to their passions, but to their judgment. Know-Nethings, Old Line Whigs and all, were warned it the dangerous cloud that now hovers around our glorious fabric throaten-ing its aspect, and destructive should it wrap its dark and desiral wings around us.
He had not a word to say in detriment to the nonreso Mr. Fillmore pursued while President—he level his actions in regard to the slavery que on (which is now the all-absorbing and most im orthon question) were sanctioned and approved by e Liiro South. Ho had reason to be hat precedent, that Mr. F., if elected, would no etray the South; Mr. Buchanau he knew got, for his whole life presented a record. f wh any Southern gentleman might be justly troad.

He was conscientionally convinced that Mr. If chagan was stronger than Mr. Fillinore. thought it the duty of every man, be he Whige Know-Nothing, who entertained similar views, raily to the Democratic standard and battle for t Constitution and Union. He did not ask the credulous to come to the aid of Mr. Buchanan, un til after the August elections in Missouri, Penn-sylvania, Indiana, North Carolina, and other States. These elections, he predicted, would be sufficient to convince all honest men of the utto mpossibility of Mr. Fillmore's election. ne Old-Line Whige to their most noble chieftaius who have, for the sake of the Constitution and Union, espoused the Democratic cause, and enlist-ed as soldiers in the terrible conflict that is to come off in November next. James C. Jones, of Tennessee, the warm personal and political friend of the Sago of Ashland, to whom the illustrious stateman had committed fire last message of love and affection to his bereaved family, as well as our own Dixon, and Lonisiann's favorite son, Judah P. Benjamin, besides a host of the most hemorad and revered of their old party, had come to the rescue in this perilons hour of danger. To the Know-Nothings he mentioned Shortridge, their la ocandidate for Governor of Alabams, and other of their brightest stars, whose patriotism had overridden their prejudices, and induced them to desert their sinking craft and take refuge in the good old Democratic ship, which has so long braved the tempest and defici the political elements which beat around her—at one time separately, at another allied-all of which she had universally connored, and conquering, had sidden safely into port, discharged her crew, and waited another and another summons -always safe, always sound, al ways reliable It was with pride that he daily welcomed some noble warrier to the bosom of Democracy, and he irmly believed that the August elections would nd that, to save our country from the shackles of Abolitionism, they must rally in mass around the Democratic banner, and cast their votes in November next for Jamos Buchanan and John C. Breck Such was the rature of this elequent au zealous appeal; and it was with pleasure and pride that I noticed the profound interest every A number of ladies were prescut, and joined la a hearty approval of the address of Col. Steven son. He speaks in Danville to-day, and I under Poor Roger; I pity him.

After Col. S. had concluded, and the great ap

Even the judiciary was included. No Whig Esq., the Democratic candidate for Commounded, however high his qualifications, his virtnes, wealth's Attorney in this district, was called to the stand, but declined making a speech on this occa sion, thinking Col. S.'s speech sufficient to convince the most sceptical.

The Know-Nothings are silent. The withering recuke administered by Col S. has closed their mouths, and they are left to contemplate their position, which will possibly elect Fromout if they maiutain it. Yours, truly, Esq., a well known citizen of Bonrhon, a practicing lawyer at our bar a few years back, and a Whig Representative of the county in the State Legislature, joined a Know-Nothing Conneil in the vicialty of his farm. In June he attended the Democratic National Convention, conversed with the Northern delegates, witnessed the proceedings, and satisfied himself that the Northern Democrate were as sound on the groat questions of the day as himself. He came home determined to vote for Buchanau and Breckinridge, and freely gave his reasons for so doing. He dared to exercise the free voter's right of choice, and the freeman's right to speak his sentiments; he not only declar-ed that he would vote according to his own notions of duty, but insciently pretended to give reasons for his course. For this nefarious conduct he has been indicated by the Council, and a committee has notified him that he will be tried like a criminal ou Saturday, the 26th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M. It is not consistent with the welfare of our be loved country to allow him a public trial; but there is no law to prevent him from making a public defense. We understand that he has the hardihood to take advantage of this defect in the laws of the laud, and will address all who may attend or mother of Catharine Ann Vau Buren Post, now eighteen years old, and wife of Alonzo Whitney Adams; that her daughter was married to said Adams by the Rov. Francis L. Hawks, by the regu-lar Episcopal ceremony, on the 27th May, 1854; that she had evidence to prove that said Adams, had been married to Elizabeth Moran, by the Rev.

Mr. Felix, of California, in 1848. Certificates were presented testifying to the same fact, as well as a letter from his first wife, who is supposed to be in this State at the recent time. A wife ness also who testafied to have been present at the marriage of Adams in California.

The case will be more fully examined late to orrow, at 11 o'clock, A. M. ME. L. MASON-Dear Sir : Schier Garcia writes at my request, what I premised to send you.
was acquainted with Mr. A phonso Adams for first time about eight years ago, when I saw him with two other gentlemen, all belonging to the American army at Buens Ranch. They called Mr. Adams "Captain Adams," and they and been with Mr. Fremont, an American. Mr. Fremont bought a large property, and had a very rich interest in the mines. Mr. Adams wanted very much to buy a large property of the same kind, and said he was to receive a large claim of land from the American Government. My mether died when I was a very young child, and my father went North to Buens Ranch to live with my uncle.

My lather's business was at Sacrameuto and My father's business was at Sacrament San Francisco, and he was much with my who was never pleased with Adams, calling him a friend of gamblers. A great many gentlemen of Mexico were very polite to the officer of the Amercans. My father was their friend, so Capt. Adams made my acquaintance. Then, I was happy, well, and rich enough!

Capt. Adams was very gallant to mo; he was nuch pleased with music; he said he would bring his mouey and slaves, and live in this country, like Hidalgo. Capt. Adams spoke to my father about my property; said he would be much pleased to be my husband, if my propersy was in my own hands, so nobody could make trouble with us. My uncle did not agree to the business, and would never charge his teelings after my father died.

When I was married, Capt. Adams proposed that all my money should be vested in rich lands, nin my name, as all mino had become his as well as mine. I agreed to this. So he took me to Sacramento and San Francisco, where papers were brought to the hotel for me to sign my name to, but they wave wave me time. but they never gave me time to sign my name to, but they never gave me time we read them.

I saw letters from his friends—very great people of America—some of them to be row from his, at a very high interest, which would soon make us very rich. At last he said he would live in this city no longer, and departed North. A long time passed—I got no letters from him I letermined to sond a messenger on to him; one vent, but could not find him. He never came back to me. I sent letters to everybody to know where he had gone, but no ness. By and by came a letter from Havana in Cuba, com a friend of my husband, to tell mo he was one forever—was killed in a duel. Ah, God! what a letter was that for me! What a day was that? I said I would go to Havaca, and there would I die. My father always said "No," but he would learn some facts; but no one knew Don Alphonso Adams, and some talked of his disrepu-

I wanted my money very much, but none could find. My father had to pay much money on nortgages, lands, papers, &c., for me.
We were advised to advertise for the bad man; never, I scorned to have my name in such pub extions. Nobody believed Caps. Adams was end, but who could know? I was robbed and inaid. I opened my eyes to see only wrongs and the on the course of the c cks on every side. Ab, it was much better that I had died than all
